

The Wisconsin Chamber Choir
presents:

Passion For Life - featuring Brahms' Zigeunerlieder

Sunday, February 12, 2023, 2:00 p.m. First Unitarian Society
Landmark Auditorium. 900 University Bay Drive, Madison, WI.

Join us for our concert on February 12th that will feature soloists, small groups and members of the Wisconsin Chamber Choir singing Brahms' Zigeunerlieder (Hungarian folk songs) in English. Included with your ticket is a delicious post-concert reception.

This intimate concert is a unique experience to hear a variety of music composed by Johannes Brahms, and more. This afternoon is filled with varying styles of music and varying sizes of ensembles, it is an event you won't want to miss.

Immediately following the event, all audience members are encouraged to join the singers for complimentary hor d'oeuvres and wine to celebrate an afternoon of musical excellence.

Founded in 1998, the Wisconsin Chamber Choir has established a reputation for excellence in the performance of oratorios, a cappella works from various centuries, and world premieres. Bach's music has always occupied a special place in the choir's repertory, with performances of the Christmas Oratorio (2002 and 2003), the Mass in B minor (2005), the St. John Passion (2010), and the Magnificat (2017). Artistic Director Robert Gehrenbeck has been hailed by critics for his vibrant and emotionally compelling interpretations of a wide variety of choral masterworks.

Advance tickets for the February 12 performance at First Unitarian Society Landmark Auditorium in Madison are available for $25 ($5 for students) from www.wisconsinchamberchoir.org. In-person tickets may be available at-the-door, if the concert is not sold out in advance. Cash or Card accepted.
